FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Virtus Group LLP announces independent membership with RSM Canada Alliance

Virtus Group LLP will have access to global resources through RSM Canada Alliance while maintaining their independence and entrepreneurial culture

Saskatoon – (September 3) – Virtus Group LLP becomes an independent member of the RSM Canada Alliance, a premier affiliation of independent accounting and consulting firms, effective September 3, 2019. This affiliation gives Virtus Group LLP access to a full range of national and international capabilities through RSM Canada LLP.

Virtus Group LLP accepted membership in RSM Canada Alliance to expand their services to their clients and people. Virtus Group LLP will have access to new tools, expertise and practice management resources, including technical resources, marketing and business development, practice management, talent management and career development, dedicated client services, and networking opportunities. This access includes a broad range of national and international resources.

Virtus Group's Managing Partner, Neil Weber said "This new alliance will allow Virtus Group to maintain our independence while leveraging RSM's global resources to provide exceptional services to clients worldwide. Virtus Group is able to access the experience, knowledge and resources of a global network of highly respected Canadian and international firms and share this expertise with the business owners of Saskatchewan and beyond."

Virtus Group LLP will continue to be independently owned, with no change to their individual name and visual identity. Clients of Virtus Group LLP will continue to work with the same local teams they know and trust.

RSM, the leading global provider of audit, tax and consulting services focused on the middle market, announced the launch of the RSM Canada Alliance on November 26, 2018 – a first-of-its-kind in the Canadian financial industry.
